

BAC 2100 Practice Midterm 2

- c) Pseudomonas aeruginosa
 - d) Pseudomonas cepacia
 - e) a and b
 - f) a, b, c and d
 - g) b and c only
 - h) c and d only
 - i) all of the above
14. The microorganism responsible for whooping cough can be classified under:
- a) Spirochetes
 - b) Mycobacteria
 - c) Gram negative bacilli
 - d) Nematodes
 - e) None of the above
15. A dermal induration that is 5 – 9mm would indicate
- a) A positive tuberculin test
 - b) A diagnostic active tuberculin infection
 - c) A doubtful tuberculin test
 - d) A negative tuberculin test
 - e) a and b
16. Which microorganism uses a vector other than itself to transmit an infection?
- a) Leptospira interrogans
 - b) Borrelia burgdoferi
 - c) Shcistosoma
 - d) Anisakis simplex
 - e) All of the above
17. Which antigen is only found on motile enteric bacteria?
- a) O
 - b) K
 - c) H
 - d) none of the above
18. Bloody stools is an indicator of what stage of disease by an enteric bacterium?
- a) Diarrhea with or without systemic invasion
 - b) Diarrhea with invasion of intestinal epithelial cells
 - c) Diarrhea with invasion of lymph nodes and bloodstream
 - d) a and b
 - e) b and c
 - f) all of the above