

MIDTERM TEST

PHIL1301C Mind, World & Knowledge

February 13th, 2014

Instructions: Complete sections A, B, and C of the midterm exam. Your exam is worth a total of 20 points.

Answer all questions in the booklets provided. You have until the end of class to finish the test. If you finish early you may leave early, but do so quietly.

Section A: Short Answer

Please answer ALL of the following questions. Each question is worth 1 point for a total of 6 points. Each answer should be approximately 1-3 sentence(s).

1. What are qualia?
2. What is solipsism?
3. What is analytic philosophy?
4. Which theory did Bishop George Berkeley defend?
5. What is the Phenomenological Fallacy?
6. What is Locke's most important criterion for personal identity?

Section B: True or False

Please answer ALL of the following questions. Each question is worth .5 point for a total of 2 points. Write your answer in the booklet, writing TRUE if your answer to the question is true and FALSE if your answer to the question is false. Do not write T or F when answering the questions.

1. Rationalism is the view that knowledge is attained primarily through the senses.
 True  False
2. The colour red is a primary quality.
 True  False
3. Identity theorists maintain that every single mental property is a material property.
 True  False
4. Gottfried Wilhelm von Leibniz was a proponent of parallelism.
 True  False

Semantic capacity: A capacity for belief includes a capacity for thought that not only differs, not merely in what they represent but also in how they represent