

Choose the correct answer by circling the appropriate letter. (5 points each)

40/50

According to the text, the term "global politics"

- A. undervalues models of decision-makers at the national level
- B. forces a person to have an overly narrow definition of politics
- C. is the only term that captures the moment of time that is not epiphenomenal
- D. is more inclusive of types of actors than other terms such as "international politics"

For many who study international relations, the four kinds of independent variables are:

- A. individual, family, group, nation
- B. class, religion, ethnicity, gender
- C. individual, national, systemic, global
- D. politics, economics, social, cultural

Respecting the sovereignty of states and following the rule of international law are examples of the _____ level of analysis.

- A. global
- B. systemic
- C. national
- D. individual

What term best describes the balance of power in the immediate post-Cold War world?

- A. Nonpolar
- B. Unipolar
- C. Bipolar
- D. Multipolar

Richard Cobden's belief that _____ would create a more peaceful world order is a core idea of 19th century liberalism.

- A. freedom
- B. justice
- C. free trade
- D. tolerance

Asserting that movement of capital and environmental problems explain an outcome is an example of the _____ level of analysis.

- A. individual
- B. national
- C. systemic
- D. global

For postcolonial feminists, imperialism & other forms of power operate at the intersection of:

- A. globalization and capitalism
- B. gender, race, and class
- C. the public and private spheres
- D. state and market