

Introduction and Sociological Foundations I Sociology Sociological Perspective Common Sense Critical thinking Sociological Imagination C. Wright Mills Structure Agency Paradigms Functionalism Conflict theory Symbolic interactionism Symbols Feminism Postmodernism	Sociological Foundations II August Comte Positivism Karl Marx Materialist Approach Bourgeois Proletariat Social Class Class Conflict Alienation Class conflict Emile Durkheim Social Solidarity Anomie Max Weber Bureaucracy Rationalization McDonaldization Harriet Martineau	Methods: Chapter 2 Sociological research Qualitative research methods Validity Literature review Interviews Laud Humphreys Ethics
Culture Culture Material and non-material culture Mores Folkways Laws Breaking norms Counterculture Subculture Values Beliefs Norms Symbols Language Cultural diversity Ethnocentrism Cultural Change <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • cultural lag • cultural diffusion • discovery 	Socialization Socialization Socializing agents <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Family School Peers Religious Organizations Media Primary socialization Secondary socialization Gender socialization Resocialization Total institution Self-Concept Self-Identity Charles Cooley <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Looking-glass self George Herbert Mead <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 'Me' and 'I' Role-taking Significant others Generalized Other  	Social Interaction Social Structures Status <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ascribed Achieved Master status Status Set Role Role strain Role conflict Role exit Erving Goffman <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Frontstage Backstage Presentation of self Dramaturgical theory Impression management Groups <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Primary groups Secondary groups Social Institutions

These are the key terms that have been listed on the PowerPoint slides (except for the few terms from Ch. 2). For Chapter 2 ONLY: you will only be examined on these terms. For the rest of the chapters you are responsible for all material assigned.