

During the hackathon, you are to evaluate the client's needs and deliver a minimum viable product with detailed documentation. You must submit three major functionalities. That is three major use-cases. Along with that you must submit use-case diagrams for the major use-cases and identify the correct relationships among the child use-cases. You must also submit Activity diagrams for the use-cases

Tutor selection and availabilities

Matching students to tutors

Create report

