

Psychology 3101 – Death & Dying: Jan. – Apr. 2011

DATES: Withdrawal – Mar. 4, 2011

Break – Feb.21-25, 2011

Classes end – Apr. 8, 2011

PROFESSOR: Dr. Terry Howard

HOURS: LMX. 359: Tues. 1200-1415; Fri. 1330-1545

E MAIL: mthoward@uottawa.ca

TEXT: NO text

OBJECTIVES: 1. to familiarize the student with the issues of death, dying, grieving and bereavement and
2. to allow the students to become cognizant of their feelings surrounding these issues.

ATTENDANCE: Attendance in class is compulsory. Marks are earned by the student and given at the discretion of the professor based on attendance.

TECHNOLOGY: Laptop computers may be NOT used in class. Lectures may be recorded only with permission. Slides are available on Blackboard until the final exam. Cell phones must be turned off.

EVALUATIONS:

1. journals: consist of two personal critiques each of which is worth 4% (+1% for questionnaire)
 - Ψ Maximum 3 pages, double-spaced
 - Ψ 1st due at the 1st exam (will be returned), 2nd due at the final
2. exams: point-form essay
 - Ψ 1st worth 40% - Feb. 17 (section C), Feb. 15 (section D)
 - Ψ 2nd 50% final exam time

Note: exams are based on slides, notes and movies, and are not cumulative!